

1930s

Yvonne Bost Pickett, NU '38

Yvonne Lillian Bost Pickett died at Bozeman Health Deaconess Hospital Monday, August 14, 2017, after 101 years of a wonderful life. Bonnie, as her husband Frank nicknamed her, was born at home to Dr. and Mrs. Ernest (Ella Elizabeth Hoffman) Bost in New Orleans, Louisiana, Nov. 8, 1915. After graduating from Vandalia High School in 1933, she attended MacMurray College for Women in Jacksonville, Illinois, for two years before transferring to Washington University School of Nursing in St. Louis, Missouri. She graduated from the five-year program with a Bachelor's of Science degree in 1938. It was in St. Louis that she met medical student, Frank Joseph Pickett, on the steps of a Methodist Church, where they would be married several years later. Bonnie worked at St. Louis Children's Hospital for more than two years before accepting a nursing position at Queen's Hospital in Honolulu in the Territory of Hawaii in early 1941. She was preceded in death by her parents, sister, husband, an infant granddaughter, Hyalite Rose Pickett, and son-in-law, Vincent Frezzo. She is survived by her children: Frank Pickett (Donna Jean) of Butte; Mary Pickett Parker (Phillip) of Billings; and John Pickett of Butte, Montana; five grandchildren: Matt Pickett (Meredith) of Missoula; Holly Pickett of New York City, New York; Luke Pickett of Butte and Jake Pickett and Kale Pickett, both of Bozeman; two great-grandchildren: Olivia and Carter Pickett of Missoula and nieces and nephews.

1940s

Ralph Berg Jr., MD '45

Ralph Berg died Friday, June 2, 2017. He attended Marcus Whitman School and Rogers High School where he graduated in 1939 with honors obtaining a Marcus Whitman academic scholarship to attend college. Ralph began his college education at Washington State College in the fall of 1939. He had a natural lean toward advanced studies in medicine. Ralph began his medical education training at Washington University School of Medicine in the fall of 1942. In the fall of 1943, Ralph's entire class at Washington Medical School University was commissioned into the military as Army officers as the War effort was intensified. The curriculum was compressed. Ralph became a member of the medical honor society, Alpha Omega Alpha. He started surgery service in the summer of 1944. In June 1945, Ralph graduated from the Washington University School of Medicine, an Army officer, Doctor of Medicine, Cum Laude and Alpha Omega Alpha honors. Dr. Berg went on to become an excellent pioneering heart surgeon.

Juanita G. Brownback, NU '48

Juanita Ruth Brownback, 93, of Pana, died Saturday, August 5, 2017 in her home. She was born March 20, 1924, in Pana, daughter of the late Orville & Frances (Pope) Gresham. Juanita attended Blackburn College and attended & received her Bachelor Degree in Nursing at Washington University in St. Louis. She had worked as an RN at Pana Community Hospital and was a nurse for the Pana school district. She was a lifelong resident of Pana, and a member of the Buckeye United Methodist Church. Juanita Gresham & Vernon Dean Brownback were married in 1948 in the First United Methodist Church, Pana. He preceded her in death on June 7, 2017. She is survived by her daughter: Deborah (David) Morrill, Downers Grove, IL; son: Lynn Brownback, Nokomis, IL; grandchildren: Michelle (Trip) Gracey & Daniel (Sara) Morrill; brother, Eugene "Bud" Gresham, Huntsville, AL; and brother-in-law, Donald Lockhart, Northfield, VT. In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded by her step-mother, Hazel Gresham; daughter, Linda Brownback; sister, Helen Lockhart; and sister-in-law, Minta B. Gresham.

J. Richard Compton, LA '40, MD '43

J. Richard "Dick" Compton, M.D., who had a private medical practice on Main Street in Laurel, MD from 1959 to 1970, died Sunday, August 13, 2017 of natural causes in Capital Caring Hospice at Providence Hospital in Washington DC. Dr. Compton was born September 24, 1919, in Trenton NJ. He was the only child of James Andrew Compton and Mary Chamberlin Compton, both of New Jersey. He attended Washington University in St. Louis MO and graduated from the School of Medicine in 1943. He joined the Army ROTC in 1936 and served as the Cadet Commander. In 1946, after an Internal Medicine residency in Baltimore MD, Dr. Compton entered active Army service. He served two tours at Walter Reed Army Hospital in Washington DC. In 1947, he served in the chief medical service at a hospital in Seoul, Korea. From 1954 to 1955, he was Commander of the Station Hospital at Camp Haugen, Japan. Dr. Compton retired from active duty in 1957, and then returned to the military in the US Army Reserve as a lieutenant colonel in 1961. He rose to the rank of Brigadier General of the Medical Corps Reserve at age 49. He commanded the 2290th US Army Hospital in Rockville MD. He retired from the Army Reserve in 1974. He served as a physician to the National Security Agency from 1970 to 1976, and then as Medical Director of Occupational Medicine at NASA Headquarters from 1979 to 1989. He formally retired with his wife, Elizabeth Lee Miles Compton, in Laurel, MD in 1990, and in 2008, they relocated to the Army Distaff Community at Knollwood in Washington, DC. Survivors along with his wife, Elizabeth, of 67 years, include his sons, Gregory A. Compton of Johns Island, SC and his wife, Bonnie and Peter M. Compton of Millington, MD and his wife, Aida; and grandchildren, Erin Henkes (Gregory), Sarah O'Leary (Michael), Ashley North Compton (Andrew), Tyler Compton, Miles L. Compton (Brandy), and Laura W. Compton (Julio); and five great-grandchildren.

Richard A. Jones, MD '43

Richard A. Jones, MD, age 99, died Saturday, August 19, 2017 in Town and Country, MO. Dr. Jones, an internist in private practice, was affiliated with Missouri Baptist Hospital. An avid angler, he enjoyed fishing throughout Missouri and California. At his Webster Groves home of 67 years, Dick could be found tending to his garden and remarkable fig bush. Upon retirement, he took pleasure in traveling with his family. Dick will be missed by all who knew him. He was born in Union, MO on May 17, 1918 to Arthur and Selma Jones. He graduated from Maplewood-Richmond Heights High School., Westminster College and Washington University School of Medicine, Summa Cum Laude. He is survived by his sons James R. Jones of Copperopolis, CA, Douglas A. Jones and Jonathan A. Jones of St. Louis, MO. He was nicknamed "FaFa" to Kimberly Redublado; and great grandchildren, Aiden, Kayla and Grayson Redublado of Louisville, CO. Dick was preceded in death by his wife of 62 years, Elizabeth Meyer Jones and son, Christopher S. Jones.

Jean J. Norwood, NU '43

Jean Majorie Jones Norwood died Thursday, August 24, 2017 at Brookdale Durham. Jean was born on April 15, 1921 in Monmouth, IL., the daughter of Russell Fielding Jones and Edna Kezia Jones. After graduating from Monmouth High School, she attended Blackburn Jr. College, and then received her BS in Nursing from Washington University in St. Louis. In 1945, she moved to Durham to teach at the Watts School of Nursing. During this time, she met and married Marion Norwood, her husband of 54 years prior to his death in 2001, and started her family. Jean served for 25 years as Office Manager/Nurse for Durham pediatrician Dr. Ben Skinner. In 1977 she became a public health nurse and supervisor at the Durham Health Department where she continued her calling to provide medical care to those who needed it, regardless of circumstances. She retired in 1994 to be a full time caregiver to her husband. In addition to Marion, Jean was preceded in death by her parents, brother Ivan, and sister Elizabeth, all of whom died in a private plane crash when Jean was 29. She is survived by her son, M. Thomas Norwood, Jr. (Louise), daughter Linda Norwood Morris (Buddy), four grandchildren Amy Norwood Holhouser, Tom Norwood III, Tina Morris, and Jeff Morris (Heather), and great-grandchildren Emma, Will, Steven, Jake and Milana.

Irene M.C. Restad, OT '48

Irene Caras Restad, 94, died Thursday, June 15, 2017. She attended the Hawthorne grade school and graduated from Missoula County High before going on to study at what is now the University of Montana in Missoula, graduating in 1945. Irene then completed her second degree in Occupational Therapy at Washington University in St. Louis. Irene was one of the first Occupational Therapists in Montana and worked at the Montana Center for Handicapped Children for over a decade. She took some time off when she had her son but then went back to work at the Mental Health Center in Billings, where she worked until retiring in 1989. After retirement, Irene was able to travel more and went on vacations all over the world including England, Greece, and Australia. Irene was preceded in death by her husband, Larry; parents, James and Bergene; her brothers, Jim and George; and sister, Janet. She is survived by her son Mark; daughter-in-law, Veronica; grandchildren, Rob, Katie and Sarah; and numerous nieces and nephews. She touched the lives of too many people to list here, but she was an exceptional woman who made the world a better place.

Harold Speert, HS '42

Harold Speert, age 101, of Lexington, Massachusetts died Saturday, February 25, 2017. He was born in Baltimore to immigrants from Eastern Europe on May 30 1915, the sixth of seven siblings. He attended Johns Hopkins University for college and medical school. After training in Obstetrics and Gynecology at Johns Hopkins and Barnes Hospital in St. Louis, he practiced medicine at Columbia-Presbyterian Hospital in New York City his entire career. He published numerous books and articles on medical history, including: Obstetrics and Gynecology: A History and Iconography, and Obstetrics and Gynecology in America. He married the former Kathryn Heller in 1943. They moved to Scarsdale, New York and later retired to Keene, New York and life in the Adirondacks, where they lived for approximately 40 years, until resettling in Lexington to be closer to their grown children. In Keene they pursued their shared love of the outdoors by hiking, skiing, biking, fishing and gardening together.

Harold is survived by his wife Kathryn, his five children, Peter, Nancy, David, Ellen and Elizabeth, 10 grandchildren, Miriam, Rebecca, Lauren, Samuel, Daniel, Rachel, Nathaniel, Zachary, Julia and Hunter and 4 great grandchildren, Leo, Genevieve, Silas and Lyla.

William B. Stocker, DE '46

William Stocker, "Doc Bill", 94, of Springfield, died Thursday, August 10, 2017 at Candlelight Lodge assisted living facility. Bill was born June 18, 1923 in Monett, MO to Will and Jessie Stocker. He would follow in his uncle's footsteps and become a dentist, graduating from Washington University School of Dentistry in St. Louis. He fulfilled his pre-dental requirements at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville. In 1945, he married Eleanor Davis, his high school sweetheart, and they shared a remarkable and loving marriage together for 72 years. Upon completion of his DDS degree, he was commissioned a 1st Lt. in the Army Dental Corps during WWII and was stationed at Fort Riley, in Junction City, KS. After his honorable discharge from the Army, Bill moved his family to St. Louis, where he opened a dental practice in suburban Webster Groves, and was also a part-time instructor at Washington University. He believed so strongly that the best dental practice was based upon prevention, that he moved to Springfield in 1953 where he became the first dentist there to limit his practice to children. He subsequently became the third dentist in the state of Missouri to become Board Certified in Pediatric Dentistry. His patients gave him the nickname of Doc Bill. He was preceded in death by his wife Ellie Stocker, who passed away in January of 2017. He is survived by his children, Deedee Schlichting (Harley) of Columbia, MO; Roger (Laura) of Seattle, WA, and Don (Margaret) of Naples, FL; four grandchildren: Cavin (Binita) Stocker of Seattle, WA; Aaron (Patricia) Collison of Tampa, FL; Shannon (Brett) Long of Bonner Springs, KS; and Maegan (Rob) Nelson of Parkville, MO and six great-grandchildren (Skyelar, Emily, Maevry, Owen, Saunjay and Amishi).

1950s

Edwin E. Carter, MD '54

Edwin Emerson Carter died Tuesday, July 11, 2017. He graduated from Wesleyan University in Meddletown, CT in 1950. He attended Washington University Medical School and graduated in 1954. Dr. Carter practiced Orthopedic Surgery in St. Louis until his retirement. He later moved to Leawood, KS. He is survived by his wife, Barbara LaBarr Carter; daughter, Leslie Carter, Green Valley, AZ; son, Tad Carter (Karen), Virginia Beach, VA; daughter, Anne Messmer (James), Tempe, AZ; stepson, Kirk Lambright (Amanda), Mission Hills, KS; stepson, Jim Lambright, La Jolla, CA and sister, Betty Bullock, Shreveport, LA.

Rudolph E. Catanzaro, LA '49, MD '50

Rudolph Edward Catanzaro, MD, died Saturday, August 12, 2017. Beloved husband of 58 years of the late Helen (nee Cataldi) Catanzaro; loving father of Paul Catanzaro, Cecilia "Cecy" (Stephen) DeHekker, and Andrea (Lance) Hodges; dear grandfather of Marissa Catanzaro, Kelly (Devin Hines) Catanzaro, Cara (Jared) Wiebel, Brett (Sally O'Brien) DeHekker, Shelley DeHekker, Kayla Hodges, and Kevin (Nicole Budd)

Hodges; great grandfather of Elliot Wiebel; dear brother of Dr. Ronald Catanzaro and the late Francis Catanzaro; dear friend to many.

Richard L. Ellis, DE '51

Richard "Dick" L. Ellis DDS, 93, of Salt Lake City, Utah died Saturday, August 26, 2017. He was born on January 25, 1924 to Daniel LeRoy and Jennie June Higham Ellis. He married the love of his life, Eloise West Ellis on January 17, 1943 in the Salt Lake Temple. He graduated from Washington University, St. Louis, MO with is dental degree in 1951. He had a love of his profession, and maintained his practice for greater than 40 years. Richard proudly served his country in WWII as a munitions expert while stationed overseas in England. After completing dental school, he was stationed in Fort Campbell, Kentucky. The greatest passion of his life was his sweetheart, Eloise with whom he shared many adventures over their 68 years of marriage. Their travels spanned the globe and unforgettably touched lives of all those they encountered. He has missed her dearly for 6 ½ years and we are grateful that they are now together again. Richard is survived by his children; Richard (Tricia), Doug (Carmen), Mark, Susan Ellis Drossulis, and Charles (Vicki-lin). He is also survived by 15 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

William Y. Eubank, MD '53

William Y. (Bill) Eubank M.D. 89, Leawood, KS, died Monday, July 3, 2017. He was born on Dec. 30, 1927, in Mexico, MO, to Carr Neil and Helen Eubank. Bill was a lifelong Kansas City resident attending Border Star Elementary and Southwest High School (Class of 1945) where he played football. He attended University of Colorado where he was a member of Phi Delta Theta. He then volunteered for the Army and served in Japan from 1946-1947, returning to CU and graduating in 1949. During his time in Colorado, he was a member of the Gymnastics team where in the off season he kept in shape rock climbing. This led to a lasting love of the mountains and future expeditions throughout North and South America. Bill graduated Cum Laude from Washington University School of Medicine after which, he served as Chief Resident of University Services at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis. Bill married the love of his life, Helen "Missy" Eubank, in 1953 and returned to Kansas City to raise three children and begin private practice with Don Black for the next 35 years at Research Medical Center. He was a founding member of Kansas City Internal Medicine. During this period, he was President of the Kansas City Heart Association, Chief of Department of Medicine at Research Medical Center, President of Medical Staff Research Medical Center, a long term Board Member of Research Health Services and The Research Foundation and Clinical Instructor in Internal Medicine for UMKC until retirement in 1992. He was a member of Alpha Omega Alpha (medical honorary society), Diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine and received the Distinguished Service Award from Research Medical Center. Bill is survived by his three children, Chris Eubank (Susan), Lisa Glassman (Steve) and Marcie Altomare (Robert), seven grandchildren, two great grandchildren, his sister Dorothy "Dottie" Lewis of Delaware, OH, and three nieces. He was preceded in death by his wife of 63 years Missy Eubank on May 2, 2017. The family wishes to express special thanks to all at Home Care Assistance, especially Loretta and Dora.

Nancy Ferreira, OT '56

Nancy Jane Schumacher Ferreira died Thursday, March 23, 2017 at the age of 87. She is survived by her children Carl, Diane, and Paul. Nancy was born and raised in Chicago, Illinois and spent many glorious summers sailing on Diamond Lake in Cassopolis, Michigan. She graduated high school from Faulkner School for Girls and went on to graduate with a triple major in nutrition-related disciplines from Purdue University where she was active in her Delta Gamma sorority and the school diving team. She continued her education to become an occupational therapist at Washington University. She met her husband, a Lisbon-born psychiatrist, Dr. Antonio J. Ferreira, in Santa Clara, California. They married in Reno, Nevada and settled in Los Gatos to raise a family and enjoy the next 30 years together. She became an early childhood educator and director of the Los Gatos-Saratoga Observation Co-Op Nursery School. Over the years she mentored hundreds of young families and authored The Mother-Child Cookbook. Her life-long passion for reading led her to her memberships in many local book clubs. Her awe of the natural world melded with her love of travel and took her to the far corners of the globe including Africa, China, Indonesia, and Antarctica.

Ann Feldman Freeman, PT '59

Ann Feldman Freeman, daughter of the late Elroy and DeLite Feldman, died Tuesday, August 15, 2017. Ann was famous for being “The Herb Lady” of St. Charles. She was a Master Gardener, raised, and sold herbs and gave lectures on herbs at the Missouri Botanical Garden. She graduated from Washington University School of Medicine with a degree in Physical Therapy. Ann was a Physical Therapist in area hospitals for over 20 years. Ann is survived by her husband, Carter B. Freeman and three children, Matt (Ruth), Julie (Howard), Andy (Lisa), and sister, Fay Schopp. She was the proud grandmother to nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild who also survive. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and other relatives. Ann and Carter were married 57 wonderful years and traveled worldwide as well and much of the U.S., Europe, Canada, and Alaska.

Guy T. Gillespie Jr., HS '54

Guy T. Gillespie, Jr. died Monday, June 5, 2017. He graduated from Ole Miss in 1948 and after a summer in Glacier National Park driving an iconic red, open-topped tour bus, he attended Vanderbilt University School of Medicine, graduating in 1952. He completed an internship at Barnes Hospital (Washington University, St. Louis) and a residency at Simpson Hematology Institute (University of Michigan). Gillespie joined the faculty of the University Of Mississippi Medical Center in June 1955, its first year of operation. He became the first board certified hematologist/oncologist in private practice in the state of Mississippi, focusing on specialized cancer care and treatment of blood disorders. At a time when many physician offices in Mississippi were still racially segregated, Gillespie chose to develop expertise in treating sickle cell anemia. Though the years, other physicians joined him to create a larger group that eventually became Jackson Oncology Associates. His care and compassion served many thousands of patients over 40 years of practice. Dr. Gillespie was predeceased by sisters Sarah Barry Wilson and Elizabeth Haynes and brother Dr. George Gillespie. He is survived by his wife, Tay, and children Julie Adkisson, Guy T. Gillespie III, Sarah Dabney Gillespie and Gordon Gillespie, eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild. He also leaves one sister Virginia Brock, as well as multiple nieces, nephews, and godchildren.

Bill L. Hamilton, HA '56

Bill L. Hamilton died Wednesday, February 22, 2017.

John W. Hard, LA '50, MD '54

John Wendell Hard, MD died Sunday, September 10, 2017, at the age of 93. He was predeceased by the love of his life, Roselyn Barolet Hard, his first-born son, Stephen Ross Hard, and his son-in-law, Russell W Lewis. He is survived by his son, John D Hard of Birmingham, Alabama, daughter, Laura H Lewis of Lostine, Oregon; sisters, Mary Lou Herrin of Benton, Illinois and Sue Hard Philips of Arlington, Washington; grandchildren, Jennifer Sealey of Spokane, Washington, Ryan Hard of Huntsville Alabama and Justin and Andrea Hard of Birmingham, Alabama; and great grandchildren Maz and Olivia Sealey of Spokane, Washington; and of course, his beloved dog, Jesse. John lived a long and full life of 93 years.

Bertram W. Justus, MD '57

Bertram Justus died Friday, May 5, 2017. He was a marvelous Hematology practitioner with the Fullerton Internal Medical Group and at St. Jude Medical Center in Fullerton, CA just a few miles from my pathology practice at Anaheim Memorial Medical Center. Bert was highly respected by the Orange County medical community and practiced the principles of high quality medicine with compassion which was taught at WUSM.

M. Richard Katz, LA '52, MD '55

M. Richard Katz died Tuesday, June 27, 2017. He was the beloved husband of the late Carol A. Katz, devoted father of Stephen David Katez, M.D. of bath ME, Charles William Katz, Esq. of McLean VA and Liese Kimble Katz of Arlington VA. He was the loving grandfather of Samuel, Emma, Abraham, Ryan and Sophie. He was the dear brother of Nonie Cohen and longtime companion of Lucetta Strumia.

Leslie E. Long, DE '57

Leslie E. Long died Thursday, September 14, 2017. She was born in 1928 in Morris, Illinois to Walter and Alta Long. Leslie is survived by his confidant and loving sister, Anita Wescoat of Las Vegas Nevada; brother, Roger of Morris Illinois; and by sons, Tom, Haeger, Steven and Tracy and their children. He is survived by 9 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren. Leslie was preceded in death by Joann Long, his wife of 44 years. Leslie led an extraordinary life, witnessing and embracing change the entire time. After service in the Army shortly World War II where he served in the Berlin Airlift, he went on to Culver Stockton College in Missouri, where he met and married Jo, attended Dental School at Washington University in St. Louis and practiced dentistry in Joliet Illinois where he raised his family and lived for 30 years. He loved his patients and they loved him, and he was often accused of keeping some patients waiting while sharing hunting or fishing stories with other patients. He was as generous with his time as he was with his love and true concern for the well-being for anyone who crossed his path.

Roy A. Nelson Jr., DE '57

Roy A. Nelson died on Wednesday, February 22, 2017. He was 88 years old. He attended Washington University Dental School and worked as an inspector for General Motors and an auditor for Jewish Hospital of St. Louis until his graduation in 1957. He then resided in Russellville and opened his dental practice. He was a member of First Baptist Church, held several positions in the Kiwanis Club, was active in both the local Baptist and Dental Associations and was elected to the Russellville School Board. After 17 years of private practice, he joined the staff at the Little Rock VAMC until his retirement. He retired as a Colonel in the Army National Guard in 1988.

Havner H. Parish Jr., MD '56

Havner H. Parish Jr. died Wednesday, June 1, 2017. He graduated in Medical Science at Washington University, St. Louis, and of Duke Medical School, Durham, he practiced urological medicine in Selma, Alabama, Albany, Georgia, and Fearington, North Carolina. He possessed a keen mind with active interests in an assortment of fields beyond medical science, including aviation, aerospace technology and engineering, astronomy, geology, anthropology, ornithology, and cosmology. He was preceded in death by his parents, brother, wife, and two step-sons. He is survived by two stepdaughters, three stepsons, niece, and brother in law, 13 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Gonzalo T. Roman, HS '59

Gonzalo T. Roman died Friday, August 25, 2017. Gonzalo was a resident of Saint Peters, Missouri at the time of passing. He received his medical degree from the University of Santo Tomas in Manila, in 1953, completed his internship at Kanawha Valley Hospital in Charleston, WV, residency at St. Mary's Hospital in Huntington, WU and Homer G. Philips Hospital in St. Louis, MO, and fellowship in Cardiology at Washington University in St. Louis, MO.

Paul A. Rubenstein, MD '57

Paul Rubenstein has died Tuesday, July 4 in Northern California. He was 89. He was a longtime physician executive whose vision and drive helped transform Cedars-Sinai from a community hospital into a major academic health system. Rubenstein was born May 3, 1931, in Milwaukee, and later moved to Phoenix. After completing undergraduate studies at Harvard University, he earned his medical degree in 1957 from the Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis. Months later, he arrived at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, one of Cedars-Sinai's precursors, for an internship and a three-year residency in medicine. Over the next three decades, Rubenstein would serve in a number of leadership roles with Cedars of Lebanon and its successor, Cedars-Sinai, culminating in his appointment as vice president of professional services, a position he held for nearly two decades. He played an instrumental role in planning for the new Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, which opened in 1976 following the merger of Cedars of Lebanon and Mount Sinai hospitals. Rubenstein in 1955 married Maxine Kessler, a graduate of Beverly Hills High School and the University of Southern California. The couple, who later divorced, had three children - Daniel, Peter and Anthony. Rubenstein is survived by his son Anthony.

Sidney L. Saltzstein, HS '58

Sidney Saltzstein, MD, MPH, died Wednesday, May 31, 2017. Sidney was born in Milwaukee; he moved to San Diego (El Cajon) in 1962 where he began a long and distinguished career in Pathology. He served in the Navy in World War II then went to Yale University and The Johns Hopkins where he received his MD degree. After that, he began his medical career at Washington University's Barnes Hospital (St. Louis, MO). Sid was the Surgical Pathologist for San Diego's County Hospital which became University of California San Diego (UCSD) Medical Center. He was the first UCSD Pathology Faculty Member and Chief of Surgical Pathology, a position he held for several decades. Sid was the founding chief and head of the Division of Anatomic Pathology at UCSD. Sid was a consultant in Pathology for the VA Naval Hospital and the Naval Regional Medical Center. He was active in the American Society of Clinical Oncology, Society of Surgical Oncology, and American Association for Preventive Oncology. Sid was president of the American Association for Cancer Education and recognized with the Margaret Hay Edwards achievement medal awarded to an individual who has made a lifetime career of cancer education. He was extremely active with the American Cancer Society. Besides serving on the National, State, and County levels of the American Cancer Society, Sid was president for several terms of both the San Diego and California Divisions. He served 17 years on the board and was a lifetime member of the Board of Directors. Sid was also active in other cancer and cancer preventative organizations. He had authored and co-authored numerous medical publications, published and or copyrighted 9 computer programs and authored a book Cancer in the Chronologically Gifted. Later in his career and wanting to further his education, he earned his MPH at SDSU. Sid then studied the epidemiology of cancer. Sid leaves behind his loving wife of 56 years, Sally Freund Saltzstein. He was a devoted father and mentor to his children: Michael Saltzstein, Peggy Saltzstein Perkins, MD (John), Jeffrey Saltzstein (deceased), Douglas Saltzstein (Kathy), Edward "Ted" Saltzstein, and Sara Saltzstein, MD. Sid also is survived by grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Semon J. Sandven, MD '51

Semon Jasper Sandven, MD, born December 24, 1924 died Sunday, July 9, 2017 at the age of 92. Much beloved son, brother, husband, father, friend and physician, Semon practiced internal medicine for 30 years in Santa Monica. He served as an Assistant Clinical Professor at both UCLA and USC. A graduate of Washington University Medical School at St Louis, he was on the staff of physicians at both Santa Monica Hospital and Saint John's Hospital where he served on the Ethics Committee. Donations may be made to cancer research at The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society to benefit children and adults suffering from cancer and blood diseases. He always felt deep compassion especially for children afflicted with such illnesses. He is survived by brother the Rev. Dr. Joe Sandven, who participated in Dr. King's Selma to Montgomery march, Judith Sandven, nieces and nephews. Semon will be sorely missed, especially by his daughter, Jodi Sandven, a retired teacher of at-risk youth residing in Oakland.

Jack C. Tippett, LA '49 MD '53

Jack Champion Tippett passed away peacefully in his sleep at home, wearing his Cardinals shirt Sunday, August 20, 2017. He was 92 years old. Jack was an orthopedic surgeon who performed the second surgery at Cardinal Glennon Hospital and he served his country proudly in the Army Air Corp in World War II. He was thrilled to be able to take an Honor Flight trip to Washington, D.C. on Veterans Day in 2015. He was the husband of his true love Margie (Stover) Tippett, and father to five daughters. Besides Margie he leaves behind daughters Barbara Tippett, Sally Tippett Rains, Gloria Jones (Raymond), cherished son-in-law Rob Rains and treasured grandchildren: Ruth Loeffler (Kevin), Joan Turner (Patrick), B.J. Rains (Karen), Mike Rains, Rebekah Brewster (Fred) and Deborah Jones as well as great-grandchildren Naismith Rains, Mia Turner and the three babies who arrived just in time to meet him: Nelson Rains, Wrenley Loeffler and Stella Turner. Jack was met at the gates of Heaven by his daughters Judy Tippett, Nancy Tippett and granddaughter Annie Schiller.

Earl J. Wipfler Jr., LA '52 MD '55

Earl John Wipfler Jr. died Wednesday, August 9, 2017.

1960sMartha Anne Coleman, GN '65

Martha Anne Coleman, 84, of Hot Springs, died Saturday, April 8, 2017. She was born in Madison, Wisconsin on October 27, 1932, to the late Willis and Anne Wyles Coleman. Working at the St. Louis Children's Hospital, she began teaching nursing to students in 1961. She graduated with a Master's in Nursing from Washington University in St. Louis in 1965.

Susan Hackman Kingston, NU '67

Susan Kingston died Tuesday, September 14. She graduated from Washington University with a Nursing degree in 1967.

Anne P. Lanier, MD '66

Andrew Stephens (Andy) Lanier, 89, of Floyd, Va., died Friday, September 17, 2010, at Carilion Roanoke Memorial Hospital in Roanoke. He was surrounded by his loving family. Dr. Lanier was born in Greensboro, N.C., the third son of the Rev. Raymond R. and Myrtle Stephens Lanier. He grew up on Virginia's Eastern Shore, graduated from Fork Union Military Academy, and did his undergraduate work at Washington and Lee University. He received his medical degree from Washington University Medical School in St. Louis, MO. After serving with the United States Public Health Service from 1946 to 1950, he began his private medical practice in Fulton, Mo. He moved to Kewaunee, Wis., where he practiced general medicine and surgery for 23 years. In 1973, he returned to Virginia and bought a small farm in Floyd County. He joined the Emergency Room Physician group at Community Hospital of the Roanoke Valley. In November 1985 he retired but resumed seeing patients with the New River Public Health District from 1988 to 1992. He is survived by his wife of 38 years, Marybeth Christy Lanier; son, Richard F. Lanier and wife, Lisa, children, Morgan and Justin, of Inverness, Ill.; daughter, Barbara Lanier Frantonius, children, Rebecca and Katherine, of Lake Forest, Calif.; three stepchildren, Martha Christy Shimeall, husband, Kirk, children, Clark and Anson, of Corvallis, Ore.; David A. Christy and wife, Beth, of Wilmington, N.C.; and Beth Christy Ciche and husband, Dennis, children, Jon, Jared and Jeffrey, of Franklin, Wis.; one great-grandson, Gabe Grandone; nephews, Stephen Lanier DDS, of Fairfax, Va., Robert S. Lanier MD, of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Keith S. Lanier MD, of Portland, Ore. He also leaves his loving Scottie dog, Meggie.

Robert T. Miller, MD '63

Robert T. Miller died Friday, March 10, 2017. He was the husband of Patricia Taillon-Miller; father of Sara Miller; brother of Margaret Bath; uncle and friend of many. Ray grew up in Ely, Nevada US Army 1966-1969. He graduated from University of Oregon and received a PhD in Genetics from the University of California, Davis. Ray had an inexhaustible love of science and learning which he used daily. As a research scientist he has numerous scientific publications in the fields of genetics and genomics. Ray recently retired from Washington University School of Medicine. He was a 26 year resident of the Shaw neighborhood where he was a familiar sight walking his dog. He was an active member of Christ Church Cathedral. He loved to travel and visited 48 states and five continents during his short life. He was well loved and will be greatly missed. Services: Visitation will be at Christ Church Cathedral Thursday, December 18, 1:30 – 2:00 p.m. with a Mass to follow at 2 p.m. Donations may be made in his name to Tower Grove Park Foundation or to the Christ Church Cathedral's effort to provide education to the children of Darfur.

Paul M. Packman, LA '59, MD '63

Paul Michael Packman died Thursday, August 3, 2017. He was a dear father of Sarah (Robert Caldwell) Packman and David Packman. He was the beloved brother of Dr. Robert (Leonard Powers) Packman.

Symuel H. Smith, UC '61 HA '65

Symuel Harold Smith died Monday, June 5, 2017. Sym was born on June 1, 1922, in Tampa, Florida, to the late Annie Bell White and Lee Otis Smith. In 1946, Sym married Willietta Hodgins Smith (now deceased). Symuel received his BS Degree in Business from St. Louis University and his Masters in Hospital Administration from the Washington University School of Medicine. Sym also served as a Sergeant in the US Army during World War II, after which he pursued a successful career in hospital administration. In 1968, as Executive Director of Morrisania Hospital in Bronx, NY, Sym became the first Black Administrator of a New York City Hospital. In 1974, Symuel was recruited to Michigan as the Executive Director of the Wayne County General Hospital and in 1978, Symuel was recruited to Wisconsin as Director of Institutions and Departments for Milwaukee County. He remained in this capacity until he stepped down to pursue entrepreneurial interests. Sym was a proud member of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity and he was a member of the NAACP, where he was honored as Man of the Year in 1971. Sym was an avid golf, football, and tennis fan and loved to engage in lively current events discussions. He was very humorous, well-read, positive, and had an active presence on social media. Sym leaves to celebrate his extraordinary life daughters Cynthia Sartin, Racine, WI; Celeste (Isaac) Booker, New York, NY; Carmen (Calvin) Burtin, Milwaukee, WI, Ivy Grant of New York, NY; sister Cynthia Bradley, Philadelphia, PA; five grandchildren, Anthony Sartin, Denise Sartin, Noelle Burtin, Christian Burtin and Tyra Booker; six great-grandchildren, one great-grandson, as well as many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

1970s

Richard Lewis Baron, MD '76

Richard L. Baron, an international authority in diagnostic radiology, died Thursday, May 4, 2017. He was 68. Widely respected by colleagues across the globe, he enjoyed a distinguished career as a clinician, researcher and educator, and received numerous awards for his pioneering work in diagnostic imaging of liver disease. A professor of Radiology at the University of Chicago, Dr. Baron chaired the department and subsequently became dean for clinical practice. Prior to that, he was chair of Radiology at the University of Pittsburgh and founding president and CEO of the University of Pittsburgh Physicians. Additionally, he served on the board of the Radiological Society of North America for eight years and was president in 2016. Throughout his career, Dr. Baron was dedicated to building bridges among radiologists around the world, forging a roster of lifelong personal and professional relationships along the way. A native of Longmeadow, Mass, Dr. Baron graduated from Yale University and earned his medical degree at Washington University in St. Louis. A man of many passions, he was an avid skier, tennis player and photographer, who shared his love of travel and cooking with Shirley, his beloved wife of 45 years. A devoted husband and father, he is survived by his wife, their two children, Timothy Baron and Christine Turner (Matthew), and his older brother, John Baron.

Jaswinder Kaur Ghuman, HS '79

Jaswinder Kaur Ghuman, of Sewickley, Pa. died Friday, August 11, 2017 at her residence surrounded by her family. She was the beloved wife of Harinder; devoted mother to her only son, Avniel; mother-in-law to Sapna; and loving grandmother of Karuna, Anisha, and Namita. She was a loving big sister to her sisters, Bhupinder and Jatinder; and brother, Opinder. She was caring and worked hard for the welfare of her family and always encouraged her many nieces and nephews. She was a particular role model to young female members of the family. Dr. Ghuman was born in Dakha, India, attended C.M.C Medical College in Ludhiana, Punjab, India and also received Internal Medicine training at C.M.C. She then moved to America with her husband and received psychiatric training at Rochester Psychiatric Center, Washington University in St. Louis and Johns Hopkins Medical School in Baltimore. She held faculty positions in child psychiatry at Johns Hopkins Medical School, University of Arizona Medical College, and University of Pittsburgh Medical School. Dr. Ghuman received several teaching awards for her training of a number of child psychiatrists, general psychiatry residents, psychology interns and medical students. As a child psychiatrist, Dr. Ghuman invested her life in caring for infants and preschool children with mental health and developmental issues. She was involved in a number of research projects funded by the NIMH and published research articles, book chapters, and edited a book titled ADHD in Preschool Children: Assessment and Treatment. She developed the Ghuman-Folstein Scale for Social interactions to assess social interaction problems in pre-school children. In her free time, she enjoyed hiking, bhangra dancing with friends and family, and running around the house with her grandchildren.

Robert Dale Rounds, DE '74

Robert Dale Rounds, 73, of Lewisville, died Sunday, March 12, 2017 at his home. Robert was born March 28, 1943, at the home of his Grandmother Lund, near Garfield, Idaho, the son of Merrill D. Rounds and Nina June Lund Rounds. Robert was raised in Lewisville. He attended school in Lewisville, Grant, Midway and Rigby. He graduated from Rigby High School in 1961. Robert returned to Ricks College in 1965, graduating in 1967. He continued his education from 1967 through 1970, at Brigham Young University, earning his undergraduate degree. He then attended Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri, from the fall of 1970 until the spring of 1974, graduating with a Doctor of Medicine in dentistry degree. Robert returned to Idaho to start his practice in Rigby and practiced dentistry from 1975 until he retired in March of 2007. He loved his work and especially the patients he served. He strived to provide the best possible care and support. He is survived by a sister, Coralee "Corie" (Jerry) Poulsen, of Twin Falls, Idaho; sister-in-law, Donna Rounds; four nieces, Sherri Staggs, Stefanie Poulsen, Shelley Maxey and Erica Reis; and three nephews, Tad Rounds, Scott Rounds and Jeremy Poulsen. He was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers: Grant, Larry and Boyd.

Thomas P. Wharton Jr., MD '71

Thomas P. Wharton Jr. died Thursday, April 13, 2017 surrounded by his family at "Base-Camp." He was born and raised in Washington, DC. He was a graduate from Yale University and Washington University at St. Louis. He was a member of the medical staff at Exeter Hospital, Exeter, NH. Tom was a pioneer in using coronary balloons and stents in treating heart attacks, promoted a multi-disciplinary "fast-track" system to assure rapid treatment of heart attacks and pioneered the safe use of percutaneous intervention in hospitals without onsite cardiac surgery. He was presented the Distinguished Leadership Recognition award by the New Hampshire American Heart Association. In recognition of Tom's leadership and to acknowledge the tremendous impact he had on Exeter Hospital and the communities he served, the Board of Trustees together with the leadership of Exeter Hospital formerly named Exeter Hospital's interventional cardiovascular lab the "Thomas P. Wharton Jr. Cardiovascular Suite." Tom was an active member of the Exeter Sportsman's Club and played a key role in communications, firearms safety and would be seen at the Annual Fishing Derby patrolling the grounds as Davy Crockett.

1980s

Jeanne Dahlen Lewis, MD '82

Jeanne Dahlen Lewis, 77, died Wednesday, May 17, 2017 in Broomfield, Co. with her loving son by her side, after battling complications from Parkinson's disease. Born August 29, 1939 in Thief River Falls, Minn. to parents Stanton R. Dahlen and Victoria E. Edberg Dahlen, Jeanne married Dr. Brian Arthur Lewis in Thief River Falls on August 17, 1968. As she pursued her intellectual path, Jeanne graduated with a B.A. from Gustavus Adolphus College (St. Peter, MN), earned a Ph.D. in biochemistry from the University of Wisconsin (Madison, WI), and culminated her extensive studies with an M.D. from Washington University (St. Louis, MO). After moving to Boulder forty-eight years ago, she worked as a family physician in Lafayette and Boulder from 1983 until 2003. Jeanne made several medical mission trips to Ukraine and Nicaragua. She was a member of the American Academy of Family Physicians and the American Medical Association. When time allowed, Jeanne enjoyed gardening at home and traveling abroad. Preceded in death by her husband, Dr. Brian Arthur Lewis, in Boulder on February 14, 2002, Jeanne is survived by her son, Dr. Jeffrey Lewis (Louisville, CO), her sisters, Rosemary Welsh (Cincinnati, OH) and Rochelle Bottemiller (Plymouth, MN), as well as two grandchildren.

Richard Marias, DE '84

Richard Marias died Wednesday, August 23, 2017. Rick believed in Tikkun Olam and was actively involved in making our world a better place with his family and those he loved. He is survived by his wife Teri, his children Rachel and David, his mother Seidel, and his brother Joel.

1990s

Pamela Jo Smith, OT '92

Pamela Jo Smith, 48, died Saturday, June 3, 2017, at Carlinville Area Hospital. She was born July 23, 1968, in Harbor City, California, the daughter of Jerome and Diana McCauley. On March 18, 1989, she married Troy A. Smith in Alton. She was an Occupational Therapist for White Hall Nursing and Rehab. Pamela enjoyed reading, taking walks, and spending time with her children and family. In addition to her husband, survivors include her children, Cory Smith and Stephen Smith, both of Carlinville; one brother, Michael McCauley; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Jeffrey McCauley.